

WORLD MISSIONS OFFERAMA 2009

PROJECTS $30,000.00

Kitwe, Zambia

Missionaries Rick and Elaine Roberts have roots in rural Newfoundland. They are currently in Kitwe, Zambia as missionaries associated with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada. Presently they are at the Village of Hope where one hundred sixty children are cared for physically and spiritually. Rick and Elaine are also training the older orphans how to survive on their own after they leave the Village of Hope. Upon completion of the grade twelve program the young people enter the Hope Training Institute where they continue studies to help them find employment or to start their own business.

Upon completion of the one year program the student will have:

- spiritual formation
 - communication skills
 - business planning
 - career planning
 - practical application
- and become contributing members of society.

MISSIONS: Making a difference in each individual life!

(Sunday, May 31, 2009)

WORLD MISSIONS OFFERAMA 2009

PROJECTS $30,000.00

Kitwe, Zambia

Missionaries Rick and Elaine Roberts have roots in rural Newfoundland. They are currently in Kitwe, Zambia as missionaries associated with the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada. Presently they are at the Village of Hope where one hundred sixty children are cared for physically and spiritually. Rick and Elaine are also training the older orphans how to survive on their own after they leave the Village of Hope. Upon completion of the grade twelve program the young people enter the Hope Training Institute where they continue studies to help them find employment or to start their own business.

Upon completion of the one year program the student will have:

- spiritual formation
 - communication skills
 - business planning
 - career planning
 - practical application
- and become contributing members of society.

MISSIONS: Making a difference in each individual life!

(Sunday, May 31, 2009)